1. This action is in response to the reconsideration filed on 2/19/02.
2. Claims 1- 2, 4-15, 17, 19-22, 26-34, 36- 37, 39- 48, 50-54, 57, 59, 61, 63-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Batch et al, US Patent No. 5,423,023.
3. Claims 3, 18, 23-25, 35, 38, 49, 58 and 60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Batch et al, US Patent No. 5,423,023.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed on 2/19/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In the remark, the applicant has argued that:

- (A) Batch et al fails to teach input of process steps and a plurality of potential selections associated with the process steps claimed in the present application.
- (B) Batch et al fail to teach the process steps for use in the creation of a new software tool.

A) As noted in the last office action, Batch et al teach prompting input of process steps is shown in column 4 line 50-67 and column 8 line 40-46. The system has the capability to prompt the user for inputs inherently including prompting input of process steps. The plurality of potential selections associated with the process steps is shown in column 4 line 60-65, "The default input display may also prompt the user as to items which user must add as inputs at a given stage" inherently including plurality of potential selections associated with the process steps as claimed.

(B) Batch et al teach creation of a software tool is shown in ABSTRACT line 1-2, “integrates and manages a plurality of different task and software tools” inherently including creating a software tool, creation of a new software tool does not recite in any claim.

Conclusion

5. Thus, the rejection of the claims over the prior art in the previous office action is maintained (see paper # 7) and THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
